Collect (Opening Prayer)

First Reading: Isaiah 55:1-3

Thus says the LORD:

All you who are thirsty,
come to the water!

You who have no money,
come, receive grain and eat;

Come, without paying and without cost,
drink wine and milk!

Why spend your money for what is not bread;
your wages for what fails to satisfy?

Heed me, and you shall eat well,
you shall delight in rich fare.

Come to me heedfully,
listen, that you may have life.

I will renew with you the everlasting covenant,
the benefits assured to David.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 145:8-9, 15-18

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

*The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all
and compassionate toward all his works.*

*The eyes of all look hopefully to you,
and you give them their food in due season;
you open your hand
and satisfy the desire of every living thing.*

*The LORD is just in all his ways
and holy in all his works.
The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
to all who call upon him in truth.*

Second Reading: Romans 8:35, 37-

Brothers and sisters:
What will separate us from the love of Christ?
Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?
No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly
through him who loved us.
For I am convinced that neither death, nor
life,
nor angels, nor principalities,
nor present things, nor future things,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us
from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Alleluia and Verse: Matthew 4:4

One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

Gospel: Matthew 14:13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist,

he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself.

The crowds heard of this and followed him
on foot from their towns.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd,
his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick.

When it was evening, the disciples approached
him and said,

“This is a deserted place and it is already late;
dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages
and buy food for themselves.”

Jesus said to them, “There is no need for them to go away;
give them some food yourselves.”

But they said to him, “Five loaves and two fish are all we have here.”

Then he said, “Bring them here to me, ” and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass.

Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and
looking up to heaven,
he said the blessing, broke the loaves,
and gave them to the disciples,
who in turn gave them to the crowds.
They all ate and were satisfied,

and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full.
Those who ate were about five thousand men,
not counting women and children.

Offertory antiphon

*Moses prayed in the sight of the Lord his God, and said: Why, O Lord, is your indignation kindled against your people? Let the anger of your mind cease; remember Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to whom you swore to give a land flowing with milk and honey.
And the Lord was appeased from doing the evil which he had spoken of doing against his people. (Exodus

Blessing and Dismissal

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, o prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
