Intercessions

P: Let us give thanks continually to Christ,
our teacher and our head, who came to serve and to do good to all. In humility and confidence let us ask him:

A: Come, Lord, to visit your family.

P: Lord, be present to the bishops and priests
of your Church, who share your role as head
and shepherd,

– may they lead your people to the Father
under your guidance.

A: Come, Lord, to visit your family.

P: May your angel be with all who travel,
– to keep them safe in soul and body.

A: Come, Lord, to visit your family.

P: Teach us to serve the needs of others,
– and to be like you who came to serve, not to be served.

A: Come, Lord, to visit your family.

P: Grant that in the human family, brother
may always help brother,
– so that, with your assistance, it may be a city
compact and strong.

A: Come, Lord, to visit your family.

P: Have mercy on all the dead,
– bring them to the vision of your glory.

A: Come, Lord, to visit your family.

The Lord's Prayer

P: Gathering our prayer and praises into one,
let us offer the prayer Christ himself taught
us:

A: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Concluding Prayer and Dismissal

P: O God, who have commanded us
to listen to your beloved Son,
be pleased, we pray,
to nourish us inwardly by your word,

that, with spiritual sight made pure,
we may rejoice to behold your glory.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

A: Amen.

P: The Lord be with you.

A: And with your spirit.

P: May almighty God bless you,
the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

A: Amen.

P: Go in peace.

A: Thanks be to God.
