All things are submitted to your will, O Lord, and no one can resist your decisions; you have made all things, heaven and earth, and all that is contained under the vault of the sky; you are the master of the universe.

Collect (Opening Prayer)

First Reading: Isaiah 51:1-7

Let me now sing of my friend,
my friend's song concerning his vineyard.

My friend had a vineyard
on a fertile hillside;
he spaded it, cleared it of stones,
and planted the choicest vines;
within it he built a watchtower,
and hewed out a wine press.

Then he looked for the crop of grapes,
but what it yielded was wild grapes.

Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard:
What more was there to do for my vineyard that I had not done?

Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes,
did it bring forth wild grapes?

Now, I will let you know what I mean to do with my vineyard:
take away its hedge, give it to grazing,
break through its wall, let it be trampled!

Yes, I will make it a ruin:
it shall not be pruned or hoed,
but overgrown with thorns and briars;
I will command the clouds
not to send rain upon it.

The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his cherished plant; he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed! for justice, but hark, the outcry!

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 80: 9, 12-16, 19-20

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

*A vine from Egypt you transplanted;
you drove away the nations and planted it.*

*It put forth its foliage to the Sea,
its shoots as far as the River. R.

*The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.
Why have you broken down its walls,*

*so that every passer-by plucks its fruit,
The boar from the forest lays it waste,
and the beasts of the field feed upon it? R.*

*Once again, O LORD of hosts, look down from heaven, and see;
take care of this vine,
and protect what your right hand has planted
the son of man whom you yourself made strong. R.*

*Then we will no more withdraw from you;
give us new life, and we will call upon your name.
O LORD, God of hosts, restore us;
if your face shine upon us, then we shall be saved. R.*

Second Reading: Philippians 4:6-9

Brothers and sisters: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me.

Then the God of peace will be with you.

Alleluia and Verse: John 15:16

I have chosen you from the world, says the Lord, to go and bear fruit that will remain.

Gospel: Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people:

"Hear another parable.

There was a landowner who planted a vineyard,
put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it,
and built a tower.

Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey.

When vintage time drew near,
he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce.

But the tenants seized the servants and one
they beat,
another they killed, and a third they stoned.
Again he sent other servants, more numerous
than the first ones,
but they treated them in the same way.

Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking,
"They will respect my son."

But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another,
"This is the heir.

Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.'

They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?"

They answered him,

"He will put those wretched men to a wretched death

and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times."

Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures:

The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone;
by the Lord has this been done,
and it is wonderful in our eyes?"

Therefore, I say to you,
the kingdom of God will be taken away from you
and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Salve Regina'. It consists of ten staves of music, each with a corresponding line of Latin text underneath. The music is written in a simple, square-note style on a five-line staff. The text is in a Gothic-style font. The first line starts with a large 'S' and a 'v' above it. The text is: 'Alve Re-gí-na, * ma-ter mi-se-ri-córdi-æ, Vi-ta, dul- cé-do, et spes nostra, salve. Ad te clamá-mus, éxsu- les, fí-li- i Hevæ. Ad te suspi-rá-mus, geméntes et flen- tes in hac lacrimá-rum valle. E-ia ergo, Advo-cá-ta nostra, illos tu- os mi-se-ri-córdes ó-cu-los ad nos con- vér-te. Translation: Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor punished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning, and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this, our exile, show us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, o loving, o sweet Virgin Mar.

Blessing and Dismissal

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, o prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
